Book information

Authors: Jan Hajtó
Title: Gute Zahnmedizin
Subtitle: Ein Leitfaden

Short text:

What is good dentistry? And what qualifies a good dentist? The answers to these questions are often found out years after graduation through continuing education or with the help of experienced colleagues. With his book, Jan Hajtó presents numerous aspects of good dentistry, based on his many years of professional experience. Above all, young colleagues should read the book to discover the many facets of dental work that make this profession so fulfilling and exciting. The book is not only for the novice, however, and can also provide experienced practitioners with new food for thought on topics that challenge them on a daily basis.
